Money Affirmations

Affirmations are short phrases that you wish to believe. Usually they are phrases you half believe, but are not fully sure of.

The purpose of an affirmation is to rewire your belief system at the subconscious level, so you can create a new belief.

Once a new belief is "installed" you will manifest and see it in the physical reality around you and feel aligned internally.

I asked in the Spiritual Mechanic FB group about limiting money beliefs and flipped them to something a lot more aligned and enjoyable.
